Dad—Opportunity and Responsibility

As fathers, what we say to and about our daughters has a powerful influence.

For you know that we dealt with each of you as a father deals with his own children, encouraging, comforting and urging you to live lives worthy of God... -1 Thessalonians 2:11-12

Dad—train her to be a Proverbs 31 woman!

If we are encouraging “unfading beauty”, God gets the credit.

“Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.” -Proverbs 31:30

Why do we have a Daddy-Daughter Ball?

We have traditionally done this event around Father’s Day. In general, that is a day for fathers to be “honored.” However, what a great testimony to our daughters to honor them around this time of the year. In essence, we are choosing to take this time to treat our daughters to a special night out, living out our role as a father.

We don’t need to wait to be “honored” around Father’s Day. We do delight in the opportunity and responsibility to treat our daughters the way we hope others will treat them in the future.

What will the evening look like?

- Complimentary Pictures
- Craft/Activity
- Dinner & Dessert.
- A Time of Sharing *
- Dance Lessons and Dancing **

* We will take this opportunity for all dads to praise their daughters. Be thinking of how you would like to express her “unfading beauty” with your words. Please be mindful of time so that all dads have a chance to share.

** Ball attire is optional, but we would like to encourage both you and your daughter(s) to dress up for the evening :).
